

Dear Meat and Three Owner:

This customer, _____, from _____, recently visited <http://www.meatandthree.com> and found your listing on that website. They were kind enough to take the time to print out this note, to let you know about this great new web site that is solely devoted to Meat and Three Cafes, Diners, and Restaurants across the United States.

If you are already a member of our site, I want to personally say, "Thank you", for placing your confidence in us. Owners like you, and the viewers to the site, are helping this directory of Meat and Threes to be the best it can be and are helping to lay groundwork for some exciting things in the future. If you are not a member of our site and/or are unfamiliar with our site, I invite you to take a serious look at it.

There may be a question that you have, or a need for some more information, so please feel free to contact me by phone, fax or email (see below). I look forward to hearing from you.

Kind regards,

Phil Roberson
